Questions

1A. Using the numbers on the map above, identify the 3 major components of the Missouri Compromise in the space below.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

1B. In the spaces marked "X" and "Y" above, identify which territories the Missouri Compromise closed to slavery and which were possibly open to slavery

2. Identify the general positions of Andrew Jackson and the Jacksonian Democrats on these issues:

National Bank – national government (size and power) –

states' rights –

tariffs –

internal improvements –

3. Identify at least 3 factors that heightened tensions over the tariffs of 1828 and 1828 and led many Southerners (especially many South Carolina residents) to heavily emphasize a states' rights position?
4. In what ways did the Jacksonian Democrats and others who agreed with them (on this issue) in Congress stifle abolitionist protest?
5. Even though the National Bank didn't have to be rechartered until 1836, Henry Clay and Daniel Webster pushed for an early rechartering bill in 1832? What was their political strategy for doing so? Did their strategy work?
6. What issues primarily lead to the creation of the Whig Party?
7. What was the first presidential election in which Whigs ran against Democrats? What was the first presidential election that the Whigs won?
8. Did the Panic of 1837 boost the fortunes of the Whigs or the Democrats? Why?
9. Identify 2-3 ways in which Jacksonian Democrats differed from the Jeffersonian Democratic Republicans from whom they took much of their inspiration. [This is a difficult question because it's not directly addressed in the textbook chapter. Apply your prior knowledge and use AMSCO for help.]
