

Name & Date: _____

Terms (Define and explain relevance to this period of American history)

Navigation Acts (roughly 1650s) –
“enumerated goods” –
praying towns –
Metacom’s (King Philip’s) War –
Bacon’s Rebellion –

Questions

1. By the early 1700s, 12 of the original English colonies in North America had been roughly formed (The last, 13th colony of Georgia was established in the 1730s.) Those 12 colonies were: Massachusetts, Virginia, Connecticut, Maryland, Rhode Island, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, New Hampshire, South Carolina, and North Carolina. Of the 12 colonies listed, which were part of what the textbook refers to as (we’ll use these terms):

...New England? _____

...Mid-Atlantic? _____

...Chesapeake? _____

...Lower South? _____

2. Your textbook (Liberty, Power, Equality) emphasizes the significant differences between the different English colonies, including those on the mainland. To complete the table below, choose 4-5 broad categories in which the textbook points to differences, list those differences in the leftmost column of the table, and then briefly describe those differences in the appropriate boxes. [Note: Do not simply copy parts of the chart on pages 72-73. Use your own words. Consolidate categories—e.g., combine the pages 73 chart’s categories like “Formal Religion” and “religious tone” into “religion”]

Category	New England	Mid-Atlantic	Chesapeake	Lower South
1.
2.
3.
4.

3. Although the North American colonies were different from each other around 1700, they shared some common features. Name 2-3.

4. Define mercantilism in your own words. Include an explanation of the logic and ideas behind mercantilism and how the English, specifically intended to put the idea into practice.

5. Identify and briefly explain 2-3 reasons why England passed laws that regulated colonial trade, including the Navigation Acts.

6. Why did major, violent conflicts between Native Americans and settlers break out in Virginia and Maryland but not in other places (e.g., New York)?

7. Fill in the chart below. Be succinct.

War	Who fought whom?	Why (principal motives)?
Metacom's War
Bacon's Rebellion		