📖 This final exam is worth 30% of your grade in this course. Please take your time, skip tough questions and come back to them later (perhaps if a later question provides you with a hint or reminder).

I'm sure the testing lab will be busy and the Moodle server will under some strain during Finals Week, so be sure to save your work every 20 minutes or so by clicking the button at the end of the exam:

Save without submitting

When you have completed the exam (after having reviewed your answers) click the button:

Submit all and finish

You will then see your raw score and percentage grade on this test.

📖 These first 20 questions come directly from the computer quizzes you take each week.

As a musical culture, rock'n'roll was mainly derived from the African-American blues tradition. Elvis Presley was very much a product of the South, and thus was heavily influenced by this musical genre. Much to the dismay of traditionally-minded parents, his songs, along with his "outrageous" dancing and gyrating became the popular symbol of the rebellious youth culture that was forming in the supposedly conservative 1950's.
