Matthew has the opportunity to improve his grade in this course by doing the following:

- #1 Turning in a significantly better paper than he did on the first assignment, which was less than half of the minimum required length and had significant grammar errors and lacked any depth of analysis.
- #2 Much more frequent and thoughtful participation in online class forums. With no maximum limit on participation, anything less than full credit is inexcusable.
- #3 A much higher final exam score than the D (adjusted/curved upward to a C)
- #4 He must also complete the optional extra credit assignment if he is to illustrate his desire for significant improvement in the class grade.
