

CHRONOLOGY

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1817 American Colonization Society founded 1820s Shaker colonies grow 1825 New Harmony founded, fails three years later 1826 American Society for the Promotion of Temperance founded 1827 Workingmen's Party founded in Philadelphia
Freedom's Journal begins publication
Public school movement begins in Massachusetts 1829 David Walker's Appeal to the Colored Citizens of the World is published 1830 Joseph Smith founds Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Mormon Church)
Charles G. Finney's revivals in Rochester 1831 William Lloyd Garrison begins publishing antislavery newspaper, the Liberator 1832 Immigration begins to increase 1833 American Anti-Slavery Society founded by William Lloyd Garrison and Theodore Weld 1834 First Female Moral Reform Society founded in New York
National Trades Union formed | 1836 Congress passes "gag rule" to prevent discussion of antislavery petitions 1837 Antislavery editor Elijah P. Lovejoy killed
Angelina Grimké addresses Massachusetts legislature
Sarah Grimké, Letters on the Equality of the Sexes and the Condition of Women
Panic begins seven-year depression 1839 Theodore Weld publishes American Slavery As It Is 1840s New York and Boston complete public water systems 1840 Liberty Party founded 1843 Millerites await the end of the world
Dorothea Dix spearheads asylum reform movement 1844 Mormon leader Joseph Smith killed by mob 1845 New York creates city police force
Beginning of Irish Potato Famine and mass Irish immigration into the United States 1846 Mormons begin migration to the Great Salt Lake 1848 Women's Rights Convention at Seneca Falls
John Noyes founds Oneida Community |
|--|---|