"Since I put in Amsoil in my 2013 Chevy Malibu, my gas mileage went up from 18.6 to 19.3 in around 5 months. I drive around 14,000 miles per year divided by 18.6 equals around 752 gallons per year. Now let's divide 14,000 by 19.3 which gave me 725. This means after some math calculation that I used 27 gallons less x 2.90 per gallon is almost 80 bucks. This is what the oil cost me per year so I got the oil for free! Plus I have peace of mind that my vehicle will not endure punishment saving me even more in repairs and
